SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

X The defendant shall pay any financial penalty that is imposed by this judgment and that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. Having assessed the defendant's ability to pay, payment of the total criminal monetary penalties shall be paid in equal monthly installments of $25.00 or ten percent of his net monthly income, whichever is greater, to commence 30 days after release from imprisonment to a term of supervision.

X Due to the defendant's substance abuse history, he shall participate as directed and approved by the probation officer in treatment for narcotic addiction, drug dependence, or alcohol dependence, which includes urinalysis or other drug detection measures and which may require residence and/or participation in a residential treatment facility. The number of drug tests shall not exceed 52 tests in a one-year period. Any participation will require complete abstinence from all alcoholic beverages. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with substance abuse counseling and/or testing based on a copay sliding fee scale as directed and approved by the United States probation Office. The copay shall never exceed the total costs of counseling.

X Due to the defendant's discussion of committing suicide, he shall participate in a program of mental health treatment, as directed by the probation officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the probation officer.
X While on supervised release, the defendant shall participate in an approved sexual offender treatment program, at his own expense, as directed by the probation officer. If deemed necessary, the defendant shall submit to an approved sexual-predator evaluation. The defendant shall abide by all rules, requirements, and conditions of the treatment program, including submission to polygraph and/or plethysmograph examination, at his own expense, to determine compliance with the conditions of release. The defendant shall remain in the program until successfully completed, or until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the Court and/or probation officer.

X Due to the nature of the offense, the defendant shall permit the probation officer to have access to any personal computer and/or electronic device capable of accessing the Internet, world Wide Web and Electronic Mail. The defendant shall also allow the probation officer or designee to conduct regular searches of his computer using software monitoring devices if determined necessary by the probation officer. While on supervised release, the defendant shall advise the probation officer of all e-mail addresses used on both public and private computers. The defendant shall not enter any Internet Chat rooms. The defendant shall consent to third-party disclosure to any employer or potential employer, concerning any computer-related restrictions that may be imposed. The defendant shall warn other residents or occupants at his home that computer systems will be subject to inspection by the probation officer and/or authorized contractor.

X Due to the nature of the offense, the defendant shall submit his person, residence, real property, place of business, communication devices, computer, or vehicle to a search, conducted by the United States Probation Office at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.

X The defendant shall provide the probation officer and the Financial Litigation unit of the United States Attorney's Office with access to any requested financial information. The defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with the Financial Litigation Unit.

X The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or any other anticipate or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. The defendant shall immediately notify the probation officer of the receipt of any indicated monies.

X Defendant shall submit within 15 days , not to exceed 52 tests in a one year period for drug urinalysis.
